

GTI flies away with the Motor Trend Car of the Year Award.

They called it "a tiger in a three-piece suit." They said, "It delivers a combination of talents that exists nowhere else in the marketplace."

And then they awarded it Motor Trend Magazine's 1985 Car of the Year Award. They painstakingly studied acceleration, performance, chassis dynamics, quality control, handling, dollar value, fuel economy, comfort, convenience and more.

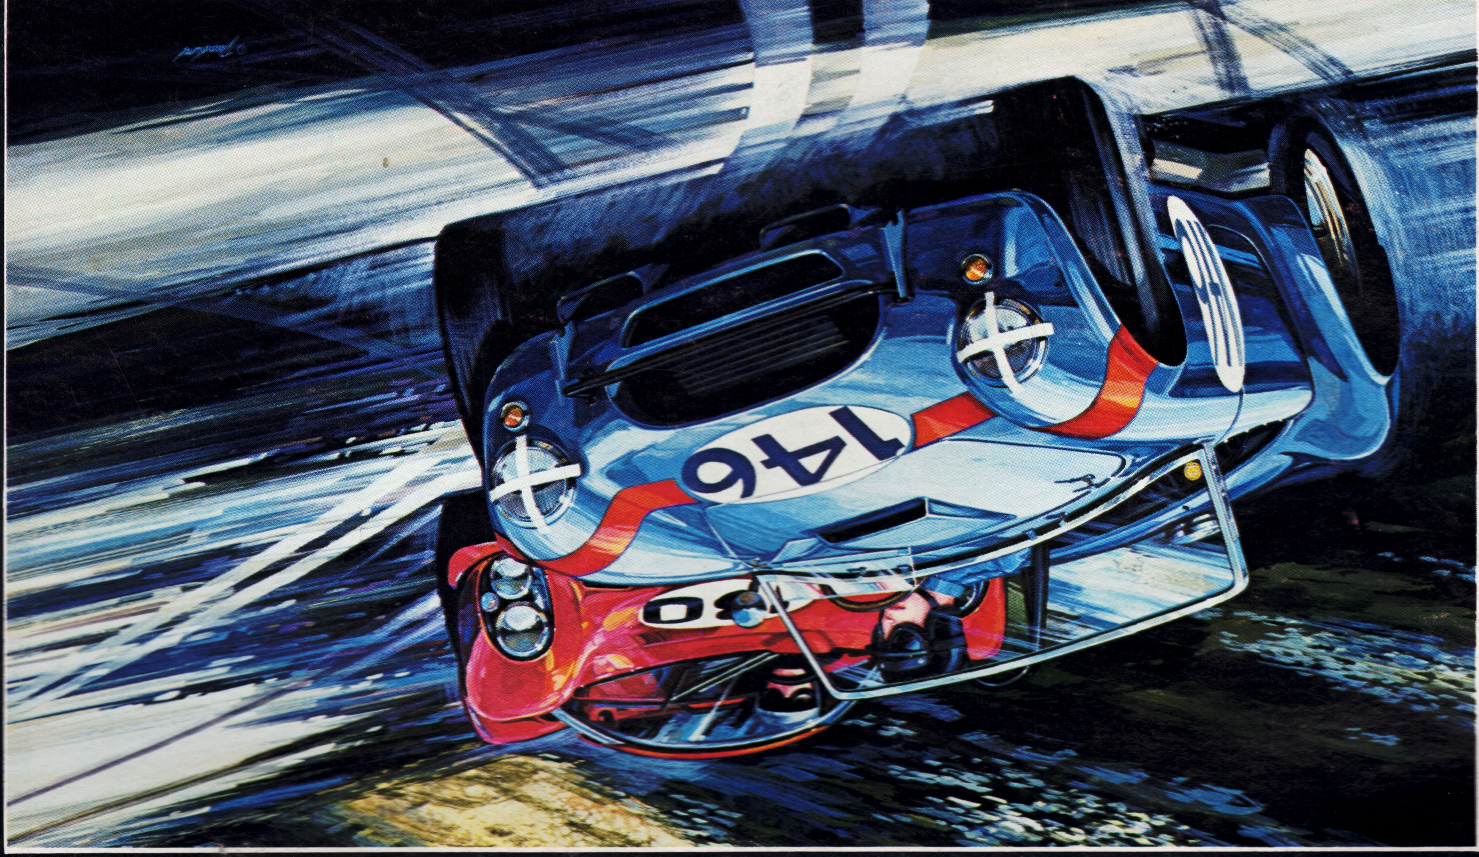

The Volkswagen GTI had to beat out some tough competition to win. And it came through with the highest marks. Of course, the best way to experience the thrill of a GTI isn't by reading about it. It's by taking one out for a test flight.
